

2011 Commonwealth Writers' Prize Finalist

*A Quill and Quire Best Book of 2010 * A Globe and Mail Top 100 Book of 2010

*An Amazon.ca Top 100 Editors' Pick of 2010 *A January Magazine Best Book of 2010

The Sky is Falling

Caroline Adderson

"If you're in the habit of reading Chekhov, Jane Z. is a narrator you want to meet, with stories you really want to read..." — The Globe and Mail

The year is 1984 and nineteen-year-old Jane Z., a student of Russian and Russian literature, rents a room in a shared house with a trio of idealists. Jane's particular passion and lens on the world is the work of Anton Chekhov. It does not take long before her radical housemates, Chekhovian in their utopian dreams and youthful pathos, draw Jane into their comical infighting.

The Sky Is Falling has roots in Slavic studies and deftly intertwines themes of first love and the Cold War dread of nuclear disaster with the timelessness of the great Russian classics.

Thomas Allen Publishers

$32.95 Hardcover

Exclusive 20% discount off the retail price.

Please inquire for more information: orders@t-allen.com

www.thomasallen.ca
www.carolineadderson.com